INVITATION TO JOIN BAPIO

The British Association of Physicians of Indian Origin is a national voluntary organisation, established in 1998. It is the largest body, representing Doctors and Dentists of Indian origin working in the National Health Service, UK. BAPIO was launched by a Health Minister and since then it has steadily grown in stature and influence.

Our Focus:

- ◆ Empowering professional excellence & leadership
- ◆ Influencing national policies
- ◆ Advice
- ◆ Promoting pride in our culture
- ◆ Providing a 'Voice'

Why join BAPIO?

- ◆ Avoid personal and professional isolation
- ◆ No more suffering in silence
- ◆ An empathetic ear for your concerns
- ◆ Mentoring to promote excellence
- ◆ Educational and learning opportunities
- ◆ Updates via the website, e-newsletters, and journal
- ◆ Access to free discussion groups
- ◆ Opportunities for Networking and Socialising
- ◆ Belonging to a national organisation
- ◆ Special discounts on goods where appropriate

Who can join?

Membership is open to doctors and dentists, and medical and dental students, of Indian origin working in UK. (Indian origin means originating from the Indian subcontinent).

Doctors and dentists not from the Indian subcontinent may apply to join as associate members, and will have full access to services, except voting rights.
