

BAPIO Annual Conference 2019

In Collaboration with Health Education England: Global Engagement

DAY 1

Delivering Patient-centric Care in the Midst of Global Crisis in the Healthcare Workforce

Friday 22nd November 2019, Radisson Blu Edwardian, Heathrow, London UB3 5AW

Introduction:

As care moves away from a focus on episodic acute care towards more holistic, continuous care, there is an acknowledgement of the importance of integrating health services and ensuring smooth transitions between health, social, community and other agencies. This Conference will bring together a range of health care professionals from across the globe to explore role of integrated care in addressing the issue of healthcare workers shortages.
